Mission Statement

Washington University Physical Therapy will lead in advancing human health through movement, integrating interdisciplinary research, outstanding clinical care and education of tomorrow's leaders to drive optimization of function across the lifespan.

Faculty Speaker

Sylvia Czuppon, PT, DPT, OCS, is an Associate Professor of Physical Therapy and Orthopaedic Surgery at Washington University School of Medicine. She is a board certified clinical specialist in Orthopaedic Physical Therapy. She divides time between outpatient clinical practice treating people with musculoskeletal pain and teaching orthopaedic content in the professional DPT curriculum at Washington University. She has given local, state, and national presentations on lower extremity injury rehabilitation and return to sport. She is the co-founder of the St. Louis Adolescent Female Sports Medicine Initiative and volunteers her time speaking to youth sports teams about injury prevention strategies. Dr. Czuppon received her Master of Science in Physical Therapy and her clinical Doctorate in Physical Therapy from Washington University. Dr. Czuppon enjoys taekwon do, traveling, and spending time with her friends and family.
